Church Covenant

Having accepted Jesus Christ as our Savior and Lord, and on profession of faith in Him, we do now, in the presence of God and this assembly, covenant with one another as members of His Church.

We agree by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love, faithfully seeking by all means to grow in grace and in our understanding of the truth of God.

We agree to work and pray for the coming Kingdom of God, seeking to have His will done in our lives, in our homes, and in the affairs of our community and world, making prayer a part of our daily living, seeking God's help to enable us to do our daily tasks, to overcome temptations and to live righteously.

We will attend the services of this church with regularity; contributing as God prospers us, for the expense of the church at home and abroad.

We promise to be faithful in our engagements, to be honest in our manner of life and speech, to be temperate in our habits, to guard carefully the good name of the church and its members, to remember each other in prayer, to aid each other in sickness and distress, and to "do to others what we would have them do to us." (Matthew 7:12 NIV)

We agree further, if we should remove from this place, to unite with some other church in which we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and of God's Word.
